'Good manners are the art of making those people easy with whom we converse. Whoever makes the fewest persons uneasy' is the best bred in the company.'

Justice (Retd) Sharif Hussain Bukhari adorns his knowledge with manners; his politeness may be called benevolence in trifles. He is one of the most well-mannered faculty members. He teaches with an exclusive style of his own. He has been teaching exclusively in QLC for the past eight years.

He enlightens readers of prominent English Newspapers with his articles. He is a regular Writer of Legal Issues, National and International Affairs.

Justice (Retd) Sharif Hussein Bukhari has also earned respect for his devotion and work for Kashmir Cause. Presently he is writing a book on Kashmir issue. He was one of those exclusively selected passengers of the first bus service, after 1947, which traveled from Muzaffarabad to Srinagar (Occupied Kashmir) on April 7, 2005 and was warmly welcomed by the Indian Government. He is also a regular and valuable contributor for College Magazine "QLCian".

He has delivered landmark judgments. It will not be an exaggeration to say that when Justice Bukhari was member of Bar, the Bench was deprived of an excellent Judge, and when he was elevated to the Bench the Bar was deprived of a talented lawyer.

Four things belong to a judge, to hear courteously, to answer wisely, to consider soberly and to decide impartially. Justice (R) Muhammad Nasim Chaudhary is a stalwart of legal profession and yet so humble towards life. He is a Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D) in Procedural Law.

Justice (R) Muhammad Nasim Chaudhary has served in subordinate judiciary for more than three decades from 1963 to 1994 and served as judge Lahore High Court Lahore from 01-08-1994 to 30-04-2000 and stood retired accordingly. He is also enrolled as Advocate Supreme Court of Pakistan. Presently he is Special Judge Banking Courts.

Justice (R) Muhammad Nasim Chaudhary has written a number of articles, published in different law journals, as well as in National English and Urdu Newspapers. He compiled, “The Manual of Forms and Instructions” (700 pages) published by the Lahore High Court, Lahore in 1989 and was awarded the ‘Certificate of Merit’ by Lahore High Court. He was awarded, “Chair of Honor” by District Bar Association, Khanewal in September 1992.

Justice (R) Muhammad Nasim Chaudhary was conferred Honorary title of Doctor of Philosophy in Procedural Law by London Institute for Applied Research in the Convocation held in January 17th, 1994 in Islamia University Bahawalpur.

As a very senior and honored member of our faculty, he enlightens our students with his vast practical knowledge and experience. Above all he is a source of inspiration for them in professional and legal ethics.
Justice (R) Rao Iqbal served judiciary for 20 years. He was Additional District and Sessions Judge, and was later elevated to Judge of Lahore High Court. After his retirement he served as Judge Banking Court.

Perhaps the phrase, ‘as Sober as a Judge,’ was coined for him. Besides imparting knowledge he infuses a sense of maturity and responsibility into students. A very committed Professor of Law who makes the study of law easy.

As a person, Justice (R) Aqil Mirza is soft spoken, humble, and possesses a graceful personality. He is a thorough gentleman renowned for his patience and upholding of justice.

Justice (R) Aqil Mirza has also worked as Special Judge Banking Crimes. Now-a-days he is a practicing lawyer of Supreme Court and is senior partner in Aqil & Aqil Associates. His son Adeel Mirza is also in the legal profession and working as Advocate High Court. He was former Assistant Advocate General Punjab.
Justice (R) Zahid Hussain Bukhari is the Chairman legal Education Committee Punjab Bar Council. The credit goes to Justice (R) Zahid Bukhari for the implementation of an Entry Test of Punjab Bar Council for the fresh law graduates who apply for Advocacy. Yet, another credit goes to QLC in this regard, that the Model question papers for the Bar Council Entry Test were prepared by the Research Centre of QLC.

Justice (R) Zahid Hussain Bukhari is reckoned as the top lawyer in the town on criminal side. He is an expert at Cross-examination. He has a unique but an enlightening style of teaching with his extensive experience at the Bar. Mr. Bukhari disseminates not only theoretical aspects of his subjects but trains his students with law moots in Clinical Legal Study Centre of QLC.

Justice (R) Zahid Hussain Bukhari is popular amongst his students owing to his extra-ordinary practical experience. Justice (R) Zahid Hussain Bukhari influences his students through latest precedents, laws, rules & regulations. He has a great ability to persuade the students into research methodologies. Justice (R) Zahid Hussain Bukhari is a soft-spoken, humble and a down to earth person who has fatherly influence on his students.
Justice (R) Ameer Alam Khan possesses all the traits of a thorough gentleman. He is a personality that bears good manners which is the art of making people feel easy with whom he converses. He is a man of conviction. In spite of his great achievements and authority, he is known as a person of mild temperament, and down to earth personality.

Justice (R) Ameer Alam Khan is a man who has influenced so many people in a manner that he has acquired the status of being their God Father in the profession of Law.

Justice (R) Ameer Alam Khan has been practicing law for a number of years. Acknowledging his extra ordinary abilities he was elected as President Lahore High Court Bar Association. Thereafter, he was elevated as Judge Lahore Court. Presently he is a practicing lawyer of Supreme Court of Pakistan.

Justice (R) Ameer Alam Khan holds in himself the sense of seniority and responsibility which he instills in his students by infusing in them the professional values and legal ethics, which the profession of law demands. He is a genius who not only professes the religion of law but also is amongst the very few people who actually practices his beliefs.
Mr. S.M. Zafar, a Lawyer of International Fame, is a persistent motivator who encourages his students to excel with brilliance. His excellent way of teaching leaves the students mesmerized and spellbound. He is an internationally renowned constitutional expert and is known as a Human Rights Activist. He is well known for his exceptional talents as a jurist. He regularly contributes articles on various Constitutional and Legal Issues.

Mr. S.M. Zafar is the Chairman Human Rights Society of Pakistan since 1978. He has had the honor of being the leader of Pakistan’s Delegation on Human Rights Commission, Geneva and Associate Member of Parliamentary Delegation on Kashmir to Europe and USA. He is a Former President High Court and Supreme Court Bar Association. He was a Federal Minister for Law and Parliamentary Affairs, Government of Pakistan (1965-1969).

Area of Specialization
- Criminal Law

Raja Arshad has 13 years experience in teaching. He has versatile and pleasing habits. He is hardworking, courteous and smiling. He accepts responsibilities cheerfully and does well all jobs assigned to him. He is quite popular amongst students.
Mr. Faiez specializes in the philosophy, practices, principles and psychology of CHANGE (i.e. individual, group, organizational and social) and is a great influencer, motivator and a coach for this generation. As an identity he has established through his consistent ability to help individuals, groups and organizations create their destiny. In 1995, he left a “Big 6” management consulting company as a director, partner and founding head of human resource consulting to pursue his vision of “making the difference” in the lives of people. Faiez’s niche in all the work he does, is his unique blending of scientific personal, organizational and social development principles and practices with behavioral sciences and centuries old “laws of nature”, making his message powerful enough to replace negative & disempowering personal, organizational and social beliefs with positive and powerful beliefs. He is the author of 10 books and 20 articles to-date.

He has an ability to persuade and inspire people. He regularly delivers lectures to sharpen our student’s clinical legal skills which include, conference skills, dealing with clients, etc.
Mr. Hasnat is a visiting faculty member at QLC. He is gentle and down to earth man. He is a great teacher with extraordinary skill of teaching. Professor Rana Zulqarnain is an institution in him. He has the ability to inspire people through his exquisite sense of wit. He is our permanent faculty member since 1997 and over the period has taught many subjects, making the students desirous of his company. One of the forums where one can see the sharp wits of Rana Sahib is the dealings of Disciplinary Committee as Chairman. He is a Director of Clinical Legal Skills Program and also works as a coordinator, Criminal Justice Law Moots.

Professor Rana Zulqarnain enjoys and encourages healthy debate in the Classroom and urges the students to learn and prove their mettle through positive dialogue. The students in his class never want to leave the classroom and reluctantly, leave only when the class timing is over.

Professor Rana Zulqarnain’s knowledge and management skills are a result of the training he had undergone while he was Judge Banking Court and also when he was an active participant in politics.
On every prestigiously grand function of the college the one person who is looked up to is Prof. Javed Sheikh. From the scratch this person carefully scrutinizes the tits and bits of the function whether it be forming committees or deciding a menu, Professor Javed Sheikh is the sole authority.

As a Lawyer, Mr. Javed Iqbal Sheikh has handled thousands of Cases in respect of peaceable transfer of properties in Pakistan and is equally good at handling student-affairs especially in motivating them to participate in various extra-curricular activities. Language is not all abstract construction of the learned or of dictionary-makers but something arising out of work, needs, ties, joys, affections, tastes of long generations of humanity and has its basis broad and low close to the ground. Students feel that Language is no barrier when Professor Sheikh is teaching.
